

Anna Trigueiro Conner

BOISE, Idaho — Anna Trigueiro, 82, died April 7, 1996, at a nursing home in Boise, Idaho.

A native of Stillwater, Nev., she was born Jan. 13, 1914, to Joseph and Mary Armas Trigueiro, and had lived in Boise since 1994, coming from Fallon, where she lived since 1982. She also operated motels in Pismo Beach and Salinas, Calif., from the mid 1950s until 1982. She attended schools in Fallon and nursing training in Reno and served as a Navy nurse during World War II.

Her husband, Howard, died in 1994, sisters, Alice Friberg and Mary Adams, brothers, Louie and Willie Trigueiro and a nephew, preceded her in death.

Surviving are brother, Lloyd Trigueiro and sister, Frances Carrera, both of Fallon; sister, Betty Treadwell of Walnut Creek, Calif.; and several niecès and nephews.

A funeral is scheduled for 10 a.m. Saturday at Smith Family Funeral Home, with burial at Fallon Cemetery.

Anna Conner

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Smith Family Funeral Home Chapel, for Fallon native Anna Conner, 82, with Monsignor Elwood J. LaVoy, officiating. Interment will follow in the Fallon Cemetery.

She died April 7 at a rest home in Boise, Idaho. She was born Jan. 13, 1914, at Stillwater to Joseph and Mary Armas Trigueiro. She attended local schools, and obtained nurse's training in Reno. She was a Navy nurse during World War II. After the war, she married Howard Conner, and they lived in Fallon until the mid-50's when they moved to California, and they operated motels in Pismo Beach and Salinas. They returned to Fallon in 1982, and when her husband died in 1994, she went to Boise to live near her niece, Gail Torres.

Also preceding her in death were sisters, Alice Friberg and Mary Adams, brothers, Louie and Willie Trigueiro and nephew, Cory Peck.

Survivors include brother, Lloyd Trigueiro, and sister Frances Carrera, both of Fallon. Sister, Betty Treadwell of Walnut Creek, Calif. Numerous nieces and nephews.

Paul Marshall Estis

LA CENTER, Wash. — Paul Marshall Estis, 81, died Dec. 15, 1996, at Woodlands Convalescent Nursing Home, Woodlands, Wash.

A native of Los Angeles, he was born March 7, 1915, and had lived in LaCenter for the past three years, coming from Missouri. He had lived in Reno for 22 years, and in Tucson, Ariz.

Estis worked as a warehouse manager for Stone and Webster Construction Company, Reno, until retiring in 1976. He worked for Copeland Company, Gresham, Ore., for 10 years.

• He was a member of the Free and Accepted Masons and the Oddfellows Lodge, Reno.

Surviving are widow, Erma A. and daughter, Sharon Kindred, both of LaCenter; son, Gary of Sparks; sister, Elma Skreslet of Portland, Ore., and one granddaughter.

A graveside funeral was held at Willamette National Cemetery, Portland, Ore., under the direction of Evergreen-Staples Funeral Home, Vancouver, Wash.